

DYER AQUA

PREMIUM FRESH SEAFOOD

During harvest, our fish are moved from our ocean grow-out pens to an ice slurry in just minutes to insure consistent, dependable, fresh Florida Pompano deliveries to discerning kitchens within 48 hours.

Add Florida Pompano to your menu with confidence

Fresh, never frozen, ocean farm-raised Florida Pompano now dependably available from clean Caribbean waters

You can now move Florida Pompano from the chalkboard to your menu with confidence. Dyer Aqua is regularly shipping fresh, never frozen Florida Pompano originating from its ocean farm in Panama. These are the prized Trachinotus carolinus species that grow in the Gulf of Mexico and Caribbean.

You know where your fish originated

These fish are from special pampered brood stock that are hatched and grown to fingerlings in our tightly controlled facilities. Once the young fish are ready, we gently introduce them to our ocean grow-out pens in Panama. There, they grow to market size on a diet of food formulated to produce the predictable size and consistency necessary to build successful menu item.
